Competition Among Riflemen to Visit Ireland.

The American College of Music.

NEW YORK May 1, 1875.

The American College of Music will be organized in a few days, under the act of the Legislature relative to musical colleges, schools and academies. It is understood that several plats of ground have been offered at moderate prices as a site for the proposed college buildings, but no final action can be had until the Board of Trustees is named and the required legal formalities are complied with. Some of the best known and wealthiest citizens of the city have applied to be enrolled among the first patrons of the institution, and it is asserted that they stand ready to endow it with a very large sum of money. Dr. Elmer stated yesterday that letters had been received from not less than 100 American students in France and Germany, expressing their intention to study in the college as soon as it is ready for the reception of pupils.

Competition Among Riflemen.

The third day's competition and practice for a place on the American team to take part in the rifle match with the Irish team in Ireland in June next took place to-day at Creedmore, with the following results:

Major Leech stated that he will, as soon as practicable, lay the matter before the President of the National Rifle Association of England, and will suggest that such convention be held at Wimbleton during the visit of the American team.

Nominations by the Mayor.

Mayor Wickham to-day nominated to the Board of Aldermen General William F. (Baldy) Smith for Police Commissioner; Joseph J. O'Donohue, for Park Commissioner; John N. Hayward, Commissioner of Taxes; Vincent C. King, Fire Commissioner; Dr. Edward G. Janeway, Health Commissioner, and Townsend Cox, Commissioner of Charities. Probably for the first time in the history of municipal nominations in recent years, all the nominees were unanimously confirmed. On motion of the Republican Aldermen, the thanks of the Board were voted the Mayor for making such excellent nominations. Mr. O'Donohue is a well known tea merchant, always a Democrat, opposed to the Tweed regime, and an advocate of Mayor Wickham on the sub-committee for the detection of frauds of the Committee of Seventy.

Miss Ida Greeley, the eldest daughter of the late Horace Greeley, was married today to Col. Nicholas Smith, of Covington, Ky., at the residence of her aunt, Mrs. Jno. F. Cleveland. Rev. Father Farrell, an old friend of the Greeley family, performed the ceremony according to the rites of the Catholic Church. There were present a large number of invited guests, including Judges and military and professional men. After the ceremony the bridal party embarked on the steamer Abyssinia for Europe.

The remains were interred in Greenwood cemetery.

FIRES.

Montpelier, Vt.—Loss $140,000.

MONTPELIER, Vt., May 1.—At 12 o'clock last night a fire broke out in Bruce's block, on Main street, which raged for four hours, destroying about thirty stores and dwellings. A strong wind prevailed, threatening the business portion of the town, but fortunately changed. The dwellings on both sides of the street for nearly one-fourth of a mile were burned. Fire companies from neighboring cities contributed to the suppression of the flames. The loss will be one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

MONTPELIER, Vt., May 2.—The total loss by the destructive fire on Saturday morning is $114,000, and about $58,000 insurance. This and late previous fires destroyed about one-half of the business portion of the town, but a new hotel on the site of the old Pavilion and blocks of stores are already in rapid progress, and many of yesterday's sufferers are making arrangements to rebuild during the coming summer.

Factoryville, N. Y.—Loss $70,000.

WHITEHALL, N. Y., May 1.—McLean's paper mill at Factoryville is burned. Loss $70,000.

Janesville, Wis.—Loss $60,000.

JANESVILLE, Wis., May 1.—The First Congregational Church, the finest in the city, was burned this morning. The fire was caused by a defective flue. Loss $60,000. Insurance $25,000—as follows: In the Springfield Fire & Marine of Massachusetts, $7,500; Pennsylvania Fire, $5,000, and National Fire of New York, $5,000.

Hillsboro, Ohio—$23,000.

CINCINNATI, May 2.—A dispatch reports a fire at Hillsboro, Ohio, this morning, causing a total loss of about $23,000. The principal losers are Jno. A. Smith, in whose building the fire originated, $10,000, fully insured; and J. J. Brown, druggist, loss $8,000, insured for $4,000. The remainder is divided among a number of sufferers, who lose small amounts. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Calhoun, at one time a well known Red River planter, but more recently a notorious Grant parish politician, was yesterday convicted of forgery and publishing a deed of quittance whereby he attempted to defraud Olivia Williams (colored), his former mistress, of $20,000. The opinion is fully expressed that Calhoun knows too much of Louisiana politicians to serve a term in the penitentiary.

MEMPHIS

Express Robbers Captured—A $100 Bill Leads to Their Arrest—One of Them Makes a Successful Dash for Liberty.

MEMPHIS, May 2.—On the 8th of last January three masked men entered the Southern Express office at Corney, Ark., on the Cairo & Fulton Railroad, and demanded all money and valuables from the agent, who gave them his watch and three hundred dollars, including a hundred dollar bill sent by a lawyer from Dresden, Tenn., and the robbers left. Since then Superintendent Wm. Willis and Route Agent Agee, have been quietly at work trying to trace the robbers. A few weeks since the identical one hundred bill was found in a country store in Southern Missouri, and traced back to Corney, to a widow Montgomery and a man named Jackson. The latter was arrested, and implicated Bud Montgomery and Ben. Hale. The latter confessed to the robbery of the express office, and that Jackson was the leader in this and numerous other robberies. While being taken to jail by a guard of five men, Jackson threw his overcoat over the head of the nearest guard and ran, and though fired at several times, succeeded in making his escape. The others were placed in jail to await trial. Superintendent Willis thinks Jackson is Bender, the chief of the Gad's Hill robbers.

Connett had been ill with fever for some days, but was getting better. To-day his nurse went to a prominent physician, and was given a prescription calling for two ounces of castor oil and one dram of tirpentine. This paper was taken to a drug store, and although very plainly written, the drug clerk misunderstood it, and instead of castor oil put up croton oil. The sick man soon after took half an ounce of this terrible mixture, and was a corpse in a few hours.

NEW WILMINGTON.

Freaks of the Wind—Roofs Torn Off and a General Scatterment of Things Portable—Burglary and Arson.

Correspondence of Pittsburgh Gazette.

NEW WILMINGTON, LAWRENCE CO., PA., April 30, 1875.

During the storm that visited this vicinity yesterday considerable damage resulted therefrom. The storm came from the southwest, accompanied by thunder and lightning. The wind blew a regular hurricane, unroofing a barn that stands on the hill southwest of Wilmington, lodged a a tree on the stable owned by Senator Francis, unroofed an old house for Mr. Prather, and passing onward struck the U. P. church, taking off about one-fourth of the roof, leaving the balance of the west side in a very flapping condition. Two rafters were plunged down through the building into the middle aisle, and other timbers were lodged on the gallery floor. Had the accident occurred during public services some would have been killed or maimed. The damage will be considerable, and will necessitate the postponement of divine services for a short time in this church. Some of the shutters of the college cupola were scattered around the campus, and the tin roofing turned up. Considerable damage was also done to fences and outbuildings.

The dwelling house of Mr. Ashmore, living on the hill east of town, caught fire just after the heaviest of the gale had passed over, and in a few minutes was burned to the ground. Very little of the contents were saved, so sudden was the destruction. The dwelling was insured, but we didn't understand in what company.

On the night of the 23d, the dry goods and grocery store of Mr. W. B. Marshall was entered about one o'clock by some "professionals," the safe blown up and the store set on fire.

The thieves didn't succeed as well as they might have done, as Mr. M. had paid out some $300 that very day to some Pittsburgh merchants. It is thought that from five to ten dollars was the most that was secured, although some sixty-five dollars were found among the rubbish next morning. A heavy charge of powder must have been used, as the safe door was blown from its hinges across the room, carrying with it a part of the counter stringing.

One note of W. P. Alcorn on A. R. Sloan for a considerable amount, is missing. The fire in the store was not discovered until Mr. M. came to open up the store next morning for business. The fire had made but little headway, and was soon extinguished. The damage sustained was about $300, including the safe. No clue can be had of the perpetrators. Suspicion, however, rests on two very suspicious looking characters who were in town, looking around, a day or two previous. They were entire strangers; wanted to trade off a silver watch, and it is believed that they were the perpetrators. W.

—A letter received from a naval officer at Port Royal, who is in direct communication with the assistant surgeons at Key West, says there have been two more deaths from yellow fever at that port, and several new cases have appeared.

DASTARDLY WORK.

Incendiarism in Allegheny—Two Unsuccessful Efforts to Start Conflagrations.

During the early hours of yesterday morning some scoundrel made two attempts to start a conflagration in Allegheny. At twenty minutes after twelve o'clock the first alarm was sounded from box 52, at the General Grant engine house. It was occasioned by the discovery that the rear part of Casper Sauers house, at the corner of Chestnut and Perry streets, was on fire, and that a bundle of hay lying against the side of the house was blazing up very high. The fire was promptly extinguished before any damage was done. The department had hardly gotten home until another alarm was sounded from box 53. This was caused by the discovery of a large bundle of hay lying against a new and unoccupied frame house on Perry street, a few doors from Casper Sauers' house, blazing and rapidly setting fire to the house. This was also extinguished before any damage was done. Both fires were undoubtedly the work of an incendiary. Fortunately they were both discovered in time, as the wind was blowing very fiercely, and if the fires had gained a hold, considerable property would have been burned before they could have been extinguished.

....An action in ejectment was begun Saturday in the Common Pleas No. 2, by Byron H. Culbertson against W. H. Benton, Mary J. Benton and Chas. Little, the property in suit being two lots on Lyman street, Twenty-second ward, numbered 49 and 50, in the recorded plots of the village of Park Place. On one of the lots is a two-story frame house. A summons was issued.

....The residence of Jacob Doerr, on Mt. Oliver, a short distance from the head of the incline plane railway, was consumed by fire on Saturday morning about one o'clock, caused from the explosion of a lamp. The loss is estimated at $5,000, on which there is an insurance of $4,000 in the Birmingham Insurance Company and the Mt. Oliver Mutual, and $1,000 on its contents, in the M. & M. Company.

....John Bush, aged about fifty-five years, and a prisoner in the county jail, was found dead in his cell on Saturday morning. The jail physician made a superficial examination and was of the opinion that he died from physical exhaustion brought on by dissipation and exposure, combined with old age. The Coroner held an inquest on the body, when a verdict was rendered in accordance with the above facts.

....The new engine house on Chestnut street, Thirty-sixth ward, to be used by engine No. 10, has been completed. It was to have been finished by Dec. 1, but from various causes was delayed. The cost was $11,475, of which $4,590 is due, subject to certain deductions for each week it remained unoccupied after December 1, 1874. The old Vigilant, which is now being rebuilt, will likely be labeled No. 10 and sent to the new house.

....Mayor McCarthy will not approve the resolution of Councils to pay the bill for draping City Hall in respect to the memory of ex-Mayor Blackmore. The Mayor holds that the city's money cannot be appropriated for such purposes, and in support of his view, cites the opinion from the Supreme Court, wherein it was laid down that such expenses could not be taken from the city funds, but must be paid out of the pockets of those who ordered the expense.

....The application of Mrs. Wm. A. Ahl for a rule on her husband, Wm. A. Ahl, to compel him to file a bill of particulars specifying certain acts which he alleges in his answer to her petition for a divorce, was argued in Common Pleas Court No. 1, before Judges Sterett and Collier Saturday morning, and after a hearing refused. This leaves the case as it was before, with the application for a divorce still pending.

....The Grand officers of the Knights of Pythias of Pennsylvania have conferred degrees upon a number of officers of lodges in this city and State, as follows: Grand Chancellor, James McIntosh, of Philadelphia; Vice Chancellor, H. Seitz, of Etna, Lloyd Lodge No. 336; Past Chancellor, John Davis, G. P.; W. Duke, G. J. C., J. W. Waring, of Philadelphia, G. M. A., officiated. The degrees were conferred in the presence of a large assemby, in Pythian Hall.

....Oil shippers were considerably excited on Saturday morning by the receipt of dispatches from the oil regions containing the announcement: "No more barge oil shipped after to-day." This will necessitate the bringing of all the oil here over the railroads belonging to the Pennsylvania Railroad and they will have to be shipped over the Pennsylvania Railroad. It is a combination between the owners of the Pipe lines and the Pennsylvania Company, wherein the pipe lines refuse to load any barges that will come down the Allegheny river. As long as our refiners had the river to compete with the railroads in carrying oil, they were able to manufacture it and compete with other markets, but this, the last chance, is now taken away, and it remains to be seen what will be the next move of railroad companies. It will put an end to any more shipments east over the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, and the Pennsylvania Railroad will be without a competitor. The oil trade on the Allegheny river, by barges, is estimated to be about five hundred thousand dollars a year.

FOR SALE.
308,000 ACRES
VALUABLE LANDS
In Kansas.

By the direction of the Honorable Secretary of the Interior, the undersigned will receive sealed bids for the purchase of any or all of the unsold lands west of the Neosho River, along the southern line of the State of Kansas embraced within what is generally known as the "CHEROKEE STRIP."

These lands are offered for sale in compliance with the provisions of an act of Congress approved May 11, 1872, [U. S. Statutes at Large, vol. xvii, pp. 98 and 99.]

They will be sold to the highest bidder for cash, in quantities not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres, and not less than two dollars per acre for all of said lands lying east of the Arkansas river, and one dollar and fifty cents per acre for such lands as lie west of said river.

Printed lists, describing the lands hereby offered for sale by their proper legal subdivisions and indicating the minimum price at which each tract is held, will be sent by mail to the address of any person making application therefor to the Commisioner of the General Land Office, or to the Register and Receiver of the local offices at Wichita, and Independence, Kansas.

Persons offering to purchase may bid for as many tracts as they may desire, but each bid must be separately made and sealed, and must be for not more than one hundred and sixty acres, (and conform to the legal subdivions embraced in the list.)

Bids must be accompanied by ten per cent. of the amount bid, as a guarantee of the good faith of the bidder, which sum, in case the land is awarded and the balance not paid, will be forfeited. Should any bid be rejected, the sum deposited will be returned to the proper party.

Parties whose bids are accepted will be notified of such acceptance as soon after the opening of the bids as practicable, and if within forty days after such notice has been duly mailed payment in full be not made to the Commissioner of the General Land Office of the amount bid, the land upon which such bid was made will be again subject to sale.

The ten per cent. deposit required to accompany bids may be remitted in Post Office orders, certificates of deposit, certified checks on some Government depository payable to the order of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, or in currency.

The right to reject any and all bids is expressly reserved.

All bids must be sealed and addressed to the "COMMISSIONER OF THE GENERAL LAND OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C.," and indorsed "BIDS FOR CHEROKEE STRIP LANDS."

Bids will be received as above invited until 12 o'clock noon of the second day of August, 1875, after which they will be duly opened and acted upon.

MONDAY, MAY 3, 1875.

BONDS at Frankfort 99½.

PETROLEUM at Antwerp 27f.

GOLD closed in New York Saturday at 115½.

CHAIRMAN DAY, of the Greene County Republican Executive Committee, announces that the Republicans of Greene county have instructed the delegates for Governor Hartranft for Governor, and Colonel Andy Stewart for State Treasurer.

VICE PRESIDENT WILSON seems to fraternize very pleasantly with the people South. He is at Louisville, Kentucky, and has visited John C. Breckinridge,—who as as Vice President, presided over the Senate when Mr. Wilson was a member of that body.

IT is certainly gratifying to know that the main evidence in the Beecher trial is at last in, and that with the rebutting evidence, which should not occupy much time, in, the arguments of counsel will begin. We will then begin to see the end of the case. Certainly there will not be such prolonged speeches as that of Kenealy in the Tichborne case. We hope, therefore, for the speedy conclusion of the trial.

THE suit against Auditor Clinton, of Louisiana, is designed to test, incidentally, the legality of certain warrants issued to various creditors of the State. The issuance of those warrants are assumed to make him responsible for their payment; and hence the sums thus paid are regarded as part of the amount for which he is in malfeasance. It will evidently make a complicated case, and may fail, on this special account.

THE stock in trade of the Democracy these many years, has been its announced hostility to what it termed "centralization of power," in Governmental affairs. Yet that party has introduced, and will probably pass a bill, in New York, to confer on the Governor of that State the power to remove even the highest State officials, as Secretary of State, and others of equal grade. This, notwithstanding that these officials are elected by the people. The argument is, that the Governor will be made responsible for the conduct of those officials. In view of the fact that they are elected, and give bonds for the faithful performance of duty, it seems rather strange that the Democracy should thus become converts to such centralization as this.

THE Sunday Leader, which is supposed to represent, especially, the views of the senior editor, who is a Presbyterian, devotes a leading editorial to Decoration Day on Sunday, arguing especially against the "instinctive Calvinistic objection to celebrating the day on Sunday." While it is true that Decoration Day services are of a memorial character, and so solemn and religious, the day is of the nature of a public holiday, and the selection of a secular day for its observance affords a freedom which seems to be desired, in this country, for holidays. We judge this idea, and not a desire to yield to "instinctive Calvinistic objections," led to the selection of Saturday for the observance of the day. We think, too, the plan adopted is commendable. Our Sundays will be broken in upon rapidly enough, and we trust that so solemn and universally accepted event as that of Decoration Day will not be used to break down the slenderly held quiet and sanctity of the Sabbath day.

THE wintry character of the present Spring continues to be illustrated by high, cold winds, bleak storms, and even snow and hail. We have commenced the last month of Spring, and yet seem to be in the cold grip of Winter. Unless the cold spell yields to suitably warm weather very speedily, our farmers can look for only short and defective crops. Already, in many instances, the seeds that were planted have rotted in the ground, and further plantings must be very late. At least a month of what should be growing weather, is lost. Many have grave fears that it is simply impossible for the weather to be sufficiently warm for the grains yet to be planted to properly mature. It has been generally held that a certain equilibrium in heat and cold requires that a cold Winter shall be followed by a warm Spring. But our Winter was severely, and almost continuously, cold, and yet Spring is unusually backward. And this peculiarity is observable in all parts of the country. This will be regarded as a memorable Winter and Spring, both because of its cold, and the sickness that has generally prevailed.

THE Westmoreland celebration of the Centennial, in honor of the Hannastown Declaration of Independence, will be a sensible affair, if carried out as proposed. The Declaration was not only made May 16, 1775, an earlier date than the Mecklenberg Declaration, but is a better authenticated event than that. Jefferson, the author of the Philadelphia Declaration, denied the authenticity of that at Mechlenburg, basing his criticism on the similarity of expression and sentiment between his and that, and arguing that the Mechlenburg affair was a plagiarism from his. That at Hannastown has never been disputed, and it thus can be accepted as authentic. The celebration will be merely a parade, with possibly addresses by persons of local celebrity. No attempt will be made to give the celebration a national importance. It may be said, in this relation, that the President does not propose to attend any more Centennial celebrations, prior to the great Centennial at Philadelphia, next year. He visited Lexington and Concord, because theirs was the first affair of the kind, and was nearly frozen. He will take July 4, 1876, for his next venture in that line.

THE STATE DELEGATES.

The comments of our contemporaries, in reply to our article relative to the delegation to the State Convention, so perfectly balance each other, and so completely justify what we have said, that we are under less necessity for reply than we otherwise would have been. It is admitted that the delegation is an inferior one, but the course of the Committee in appointing it is justified on various grounds. The point we made was simply this,—that the Committee could only be justified in assuming to make the appointment by giving us a first class delegation. This we said before it met. We appreciated and now appreciate all the difficulty pertaining to Primaries and a Convention,—and only one Convention would have been necessary,—and stated plainly and unequivocally before the Committee met, that there was just one thing that would popularize the appointment of the delegation by the Committee—the selection of a thoroughly good delegation. This was not done. Hence we will say, plainly, that this thing is not acceptable to the party at large; and if the Committee is wise, it will open the way for the selection of a delegation by the Republicans of the county, assembled for that purpose. The trouble is, these gentlemen are afraid that when the delegates from the different parts of the county assemble, they will instruct the men they select to represent this county in the State Convention to vote first, last, and all the time against a mere set-up candidate for State Treasurer. As it is now, it is well known that the delegates are expected to vote as they are bid, by one or two ringsters, who have made their boast that the delegates from Allegheny county would vote and do as they wanted them. A gentleman, who returned from Philadelphia a few days ago, informs us that the Allegheny county delegates have been pledged to vote for whoever the Philadelphia Ring wants. We know that a few of the delegates will not like it when the time comes, but three-fourths of the entire delegation will have to come up to the rack and eat whether they like the fodder or not. They dare not do otherwise. We are glad to notice that Mr. Coursin, one of the delegates, sees that the whole thing is a sham, and refuses to be one of a few who are to bring a breach in the party, and therefore declines the honor conferred on him. How many more will do the same? We warn those who are the originators of this movement that it will cost the State ticket hundreds of votes in this county if they persist in carrying out their scheme.

PHARISAICAL REPENTANCE.

Judge Kelly, of this State, has put himself in the way of some cheap compliments from Liberal and Democratic papers, by an open avowal of penitence for having voted for the Force bill. He has been traveling in the South, going as far as Florida, and touching one or two cities that were included in the scope of the Force bill. He did not see any white man murdering a negro, nor any outbreak of any kind. On the other hand, he did see a band of music, belonging to the Government, heading a procession in honor of some phase of the Confederate cause,—a sort of memorial day affair. Inasmuch as these people chose to have good music without cost, rather than poor music at a round price, the Judge reached the conclusion that they were among the benevolent of the earth. He seems to have been profoundly surprised that the ex-Confederates did not murder the marine band, in place of accepting its services. It did not occur to him for a moment that what he saw was one of the many evidences of the good will of the Government toward those very rebels. It is more to give, than to receive a favor. Yet the Judge saw the rebels accepting Government favors, and forthwith slobbered over. If he is anxious to get into the ranks of the Liberals, as is very generally accepted, he could, with a little effort, have brought forward a better excuse.

What was the Force bill? A proposition merely to permit the President to suspend the writ of habeas corpus in four Southern States, in which, at the time, there was considerable turbulence, and threats of bloody outbreaks. What was the object of this? Simply to enable the President to use summary measures to enforce quiet, in the event of an outbreak. No one suspects that this power would have been arbitrarily used, or that, were there continuously the condition of things that Judge Kelly found, it would be used at all. The fact that there is no need of such a law where Judge Kelly visited, need not occasion such terrible spasms of conscience because he voted for it, and it did not pass. Moreover, no one said that at the particular time when Judge Kelly visited the South, there was trouble. But all this does not prove that there was no oppression and outrage there last Winter, any more than the fact that the Confederate lines do not exist proves that the rebellion had no existence. We have no particular objection to Judge Kelly's mounting the stool of repentance,—it will not help or hurt him very much, but really there is no need of such a pother over it. The stars did not stop in their courses when he voted for the Force bill, nor will the earth turn backwards on its axis at his repentance. If it all means that he is hunting for the Liberals, he needs to repent.

THE THIRD TERM.

It was a maxim of one of the greatest of military celebrities "that a Commanding General should never do what his adversary desired him to do." The maxim is as wise and safe in politics as in war. For more than a year past some of the leading Democratic and Liberal journals have been intent upon sowing discord in the ranks of the Republican party, by charging upon President Grant an intention to be a candidate for the Third Term, and predicting that the Third Term would open the way to "imperialism," Cæsarism, &c., &c.

The popularity of President Grant with the people is beyond dispute, and the fear that his great influence will be exerted to perpetuate the power of the Republican party, doubtless suggested the policy of destroying his influence by artfully inciting feuds amongst the Republicans; and we are sorry to see that some few of our Republican editorial brethren have been caught by the wiles of our enemies, and are lending their journals to promote the aims of those who invented and first gave currency to the foolish charge of "Cæsarism."

The bitterest enemy that Gen. Grant has in the country would not venture to charge him with a want of patriotism, or love of country, or with a lack of loyalty to our institutions. Sprung from the ranks of the common people, under the fostering care of Republican institutions, without the aid of wealth or of influential friends, he had carried his name high upon the column of fame, and there is not an act of his life, nor a trait in his character, that justifies in the remotest degree the aspersion contained in the charge that he has a design to overthrow the institutions of his country and substitute "imperialism." The authors of this slander did not believe it, nor is there a sane man in the country who could for a moment entertain such an opinion. That there may be some men who believe that Gen. Grant would continue to administer the Government well for another term, may be quite true, and when we contrast his administration with the imbecility and treachery that characterized the administration of Buchanan (to say nothing of our own "Moses") we cannot feel surprised that many of our people should wish to continue an administration that has so admirably met every requirement. The journals that invented the story, predicted that if he was elected his administration would prove a failure, because, as they asserted, he was not educated to, nor experienced in civil affairs. How have their predictions been verified? Consider the state of the country when he assumed the reins of the Government in March, 1869. The Governments in quite a number of the States were in a deplorable state of disorganization and confusion.

There was alarm and dread in some sections of the South, lest the conditions upon which those States that had not been fully restored to their proper relations as members of the Union would be subjected to, would be exceedingly exacting and oppressive. But such was not the case. On the contrary, he has shown as much magnanimity as Chief Magistrate of the nation, as he showed as commander and chief of the army, where he granted such generous terms of capitulation to General Lee and his army. That there should be some disorder after such a conflict as we have passed through, was to be expected, but the moral is, that these difficulties have all, or nearly all, been overcome. Thus has he shown that he is as able and efficient as a civil ruler, as he proved himself to be skillful and heroic as a military commander. It is safe to say, in the light of the experience that the country has had in the past six years, that no other man in the country could have conducted the affairs of our country so admirably as he has done. Besides our domestic troubles, we had serious difficulties abroad—especially with Great Britain, that threatened our peaceful relations with that Government.

In the settlement of this delicate question, involving many questions of international law, another severe test was applied to him as the Chief Executive of the nation. A new mode of settling difficulties between nations was adopted, and the principle of arbitration was called into being, and England was made to acknowledge the wrong she had done us, and has, in accordance with the decision of the arbitrators, paid fifteen and a half millions of dollars.

Under Andrew Johnson's administration a treaty had been negotiated, which virtually abandoned our claim for indemnification for injuries suffered by our commerce, but it was repudiated by the Senate.

The fear that the people may call upon such Chief Magistrate to again be a candidate is what troubles so many of the Democratic editors and leaders. They want the President to assure them that he will not be in their way as a candidate in 1876. Now it so happens that the President is familiar with the military maxim, "not to let your enemy plan your battle for you," and he has observed this maxim in war, and is aware of its value, and while we have no idea that he has sought, or is seeking a re-nomination, we admire his tactics of silence, which is so annoying to his enemies.

POLITICAL NOTES.

THE Pennsylvania Republican Convention meets at Lancaster on the 26th of this month.

THE Lancaster county Republican primaries, for the election of delegates to the State Convention, will be held on Saturday, May 22.

W. E. DOUGHERTY, of Harrisburg, is warmly urged by several Democratic journals for the Democratic nomination for State Treasurer.

THE Louisville Courier-Journal announces that Senator John A. Logan will be the next Republican candidate for Governor in Illinois. It thinks it knows.

THE Hon. Waldo P. Johnson is named by a great many Democratic newspapers in Missouri as a fit man to preside over the Constitutional Convention, which meets next month.

HON. JAMES P. BARR, editor of the Pittsburgh Post, is urged by the Western Democracy for the Gubernatorial nomination of the party. Mr. Barr is a gentleman of personal and political integrity, and would grace the nomination. The good of the Commonwealth, however, will prevent him from ever gracing the Governor's chair.—Philadelphia Press.

THE Republican Standing Committee of Snyder county, on Tuesday last, selected Dr. B. F. Wagonseller as Senatorial and Col. Thomas Shellenberger as Representative delegates to the State Convention. Resolutions were adopted endorsing the administrations of President Grant and Governor Hartranft, and instructing the delegates for Hartranft for Governor.

THE Johnstown Tribune carries at its mast head the names of Hon. John F. Hartranft for Governor and Hon. Charles S. Wolfe for State Treasurer.—PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

The Johnstown Tribune don't do any such a thing.—Tribune.

Substitute the name of Butler B. Strang for that of Charles S. Wolfe. We stand corrected.

THIS is a bad year for Democratic Speakers as well as for Democratic Legislatures. Haines is not forgotten yet, though he has been several weeks dead; McGuire, of New York, has come into unenviable prominence as one who talks too much and on the wrong side; and the Pennsylvania Speaker, a low fellow named Patterson, quite disgraced himself and his party.—Chicago Tribune.

THE Washington Republican publishes an interview with Mr. Randall relative to the Speakership of the next House of Representatives. He thinks the position will be a difficult one to fill, and that the man chosen ought, in making up the committees, to take into consideration the proclivities of members in favor of protection, free trade, expansion of the currency, contraction, etc., and give each interest a fair show, regardless of his own notions. Mr. Randall is himself evidently bidding for the election.

THE Republican Executive Committee of Venango county selected the following gentlemen as delegates to the State Convention: Hon. W. S. McMullen, Senatorial delegate; Hon. J. L. Connelly, J. C. Porterfield, Esq., and E. W. Smiley, Representative delegates. Hon. M. C. Beebe, J. H. Osmer, William Gates and E. E. Clapp, Esqs., were chosen alternates. The delegates were instructed to support Hon. John F. Hartranft for Governor, and F. W. Mitchell, Esq., for Treasurer. Mr. Mitchell, the gentleman mentioned in connection with the State Treasurership, is one of the wealthiest and most energetic citizens of Venango county, and is at the head of the oil business in that section of the State.

CARDINAL McCLOSKEY's elevation is already resulting in great good—to himself. All the young ladies want him to marry them.

CARDINAL McCLOSKEY must be deriving a pleasant little income from marriage fees. About one a day is the number. Pity the poor priests!

J. M. THORNBURGH, member of Congress from Tennessee, was married at Washington, Thursday, to Miss Laura Pettibone, of that city.

"ADIRONDACK" MURRAY, who has dwindled into insignificance lately, tries to regain his old prominence by announcing that he was thirty-five years old last Monday.

MISS HAYES, a Kentucky beauty, who clung to "the bonnie blue flag" during the war, is soon to be married to Colonel Oliver, who fought beneath the stars and stripes.

RODERICK NUTT, father of Commodore Nutt, died in Manchester, N. H., last week. "Gone," as the Philadelphia Ledger would say, "but Nutt forgotten." Gone to await the crack of doom.

MRS. SWISSHELM says that when she was a girl she was taught to cut and make every article she wore. The garment of which she talks most, and on which she has set her heart, is of her own invention.

GEN. SAM. MACK. ELLIOTT, M. D., died at his home on Statan Island on Friday, aged sixty-four years. Dr. Elliott was born in Scotland, and came to this country in 1833, when he went to Cincinnati and became a student of the celebrated Alban Goldsmith.

THE widow of the late Dan Bryant has applied to Surrogate Hutchings for letters of administration upon her husband's estate. She sets forth in her petition that the property left behind does not exceed $200 in value, and there are five children to be supported.

WHEN the good people of Denver, Col., elected L. W. Cutler city sexton, he burst into tears, exclaiming: "I'd rather be a toad and live upon the vapors of a dungeon than wait for my fellow-man to pass in his checks for me to get fat. Please leave me to pursue the quiet walks of life."

THE will of the late Mrs. Sarah G. Conway, lessee of the Brooklyn Theatre, was presented for probate Friday. It devises personal property worth less than $20,000 to the three surviving children—Minnie Lillian, and Frederick; appoints her daughter Minnie executrix, and Judge Troy executor; and bequeaths a diamond and sapphire ring to Mrs. D. P. Bowers, her sister, as a memento.

COL. ISAAC A. ROSECRANS, well known in this city, and a brother of General Rosecrans, was recently married in Denver to Jennie E. Downing. The military record of the groom was that of Chief Commissary of the Army of West Virginia, serving upon the staff of Gen. Crook, of Arizona fame. He served through the entire war of the rebellion, and left the service with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel by brevet.

"WHY don't General Sheridan get married?" has been the query for years. Men have wondered and women have sighed, and still the gallant Phil, the conquering hero of many fields, has placidly drifted on the social tide apparently proof against all charms. But he has succumbed at last; his obdurate career is about ended. We are glad of it; he ought to have been captured long ago. We have gloried in his military victories, but we now rejoice that he has been defdated in a campaign of hearts. Miss Rucker, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of General Rucker, wins the prize. The marriage will not be long postponed, and will be a grand affair.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.——Another fee for the new Cardinal.

Democratic Flattery.

Immediately following each change in the head of a department, since the inauguration of President Grant, March 4th, 1869, the Democratic journals have covered the new incumbent with flattery, coupled with what they no doubt considered wholesome advice. Mr. Pierrepont, who has been invited to succeed Mr. Williams as Attorney General of the United States, is already the victim of their cajolery. They go so far as to promise him their support on the condition that he will do as they tell him, in the same measure accorded by them to Governor Tilden, of New York.

The Devil offered the Saviour of the world his valuable co-operation in the reformation of mankind, on precisely the same conditions. Nothing which the Saviour ever did met with the old scoundrel's approval. Refusing to fall down and worship at his bidding gave his Satanic Majesty mortal offence, and any Republican who cannot conscientiously accept Democratic leadership need not expect their support.—Washington Chronicle.

The Petroleum Trade.

The total exports of petroleum from New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore for Europe for the week ending April 26th, this year, amount in crude equivalent to 137,197 barrels, a daily average of 19,599 barrels. The capacity of vessels loading and chartered to load at these ports, same date, amounted to 387,428 barrels, crude equivalent. Of this amount at that date 107,679 barrels were on board, leaving 279,748 barrels still to be loaded. The total exports this year from the three ports for Europe up to April 26th amounted to 1,326,143 barrels, crude equivalent, as against 1,541,604 barrels, same time last year. The exports, as will be observed by those who have noted previous reports, are rapidly increasing.

Latest Advices Concerning Money and Stock Matters.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, May 3, 1875.

Saturday presented the usual features as regards banks and general business. That is, a larger current business than on other days, but nothing that indicates anything permanently different than usual. The event of the day was the news that the Pennsylvania Railroad had departed from its usual custom, and had reduced the semi-annual dividend from 5 to 4 per cent. The sudden plunge downward of the stock, from 55½ to about 51½, was noticed, and seemed to perplex some. The truth is, the stock almost invariably declines with the declaration of a dividend,—the custom being to sell the stock ex-dividend,—that is, with the dividend deducted,—as soon as it is declared. Hence the decline of Saturday only represents the dividend taken off. It is understood, however, that the Company will make larger expenditures during the coming year, in preparing for the Centennial Exposition, but this will represent so much permanent increase of the assets of the road. Still, a proportion of this expense will be taken from current earnings. The road is also being provided with extra tracks, all of which increases the aggregate value of the property. Yet this necessary outlay once met, and the year succeeding must be one of great prosperity.

In local stocks, real estate, and the like, no changes remain to be noted, for the last few days.

Our latest advices by telegraph report that the Pennsylvania Railroad Directors announce a dividend of four per cent. This had a depressing influence at the stock Board, and sales were made at 51½ ex-dividend, a decline of $2 per share.

NEW YORK, May 1, 1875.

Money closed easy at 2½a3 per cent. on call. Foreign exchange was dull at 487a487½ for bankers' sixty days sterling and 490a490½ for demand. Prime mercantile paper is quoted at 5a6 per cent., with exceptionally choice at 4 per cent. Gold opened at 115½ and closed at 115¼, the extremes of the day. The borrowing rates were 1-64 per diem, and 3, 2, 1½ and 1 per cent. per annum. At the close loans were made flat. The clearings were $45,000,000. The Assistant Treasurer disbursed to-day $1,670,000, and received for customs $312,000. The specie shipments were $250,000 gold. Government bonds closed steady. State bonds are quiet and nominal. Railroad mortgages are quiet and firm.

The stock market was very dull early in the day, and prices declined, with the chief decline in Wabash. The market was steadier in the afternoon, and closed dull and steady. The advance for the day ranged from ¼ to 3 per cent. Panama made the greatest advance, rising from 157 to 160, with that price bid at the close. Western Union rose from 79¾ to 80¼, closing at 80⅛. Union Pacific advanced to 77⅛, and closed at the highest point of the day. The increased earnings of the road for April, $995,802 for twenty-nine days, against $716,851 in the same time last year, strengthens the stock, and there was a steady buying movement, which may have some connection with the rumor that a Boston combination had been formed to buy 75,000 shares. Union Pacific closed at 45, the highest price made. Lake Shore recovered to 70⅞, Northwest to 42, Ohios to 26½, and Wabash to 13¾. St. Louis & Kansas City preferred declined to 42½, and afterwards recovered to 43½. Michigan Central advanced to 74½, and Delaware, Lackawanna & Western to 119¾, with a slight reaction at the close. The transactions aggregated 134,000 shares, of which 5,600 were Erie, 10,600 Lake Shore, 8,500 Northwestern, 10,500 Pacific Mail, 8,100 Ohios, 62,000 Western Union, 9,400 Wabash, and 16,000 Union Pacific.

The Winter Wheat Crop—Unfavorable Reports

The chief point of attraction in commercial circles at present is the wheat market, and that interest turns upon the question of the extent of damage done to the full-sown wheat by winter-killing. The news received yesterday was even more doleful than any that has preceded it. A gentleman in from Palmyra, Mo., reports that all around that section the wheat has been so much damaged that the people do not expect more than a quarter crop. Another from Central Illinois says that many farmers will barely raise enough for next seeding, and letters received here from numerous points nearly all concur in the statement that the winter-wheat crop will be a comparative failure. In some places the farmers have sown spring wheat between and hope to realize a moderate yield out of the two; but this is only done near the line which divides the winter-growing from the spring-growing sections. The drought has very severe all over the West, affecting the grass crop as well as wheat. It is true that a favorable turn in the weather now would make a great difference in the prospect, and it is this which gives hope to the bear element. But the situation is one that involves unusual anxiety, and corresponding fluctuations in prices. As a rule the people in the country have shown their faith by their works, having bought largely in this city for future delivery, while city men have done the selling. Both New York and Chicago having gone heavily short, in expectation of a favorable turn. The speculative strength has carried our market up faster than New York has advanced, so that there is now no temptation to ship, and our stocks are accumulating, though the daily supply is falling off. It is worthy of note that the gentleman from Palmyra reports that Wheat is now higher there than in St. Louis, and that none can be bought for lower money. He is now on his way to the Upper Mississippi towns to see if he can buy wheat with which to keep his mill running. If this holding back on the part of the farmers should become general, it will "need no spirit from the grave to tell" the future of the wheat market.

A letter from the California agents of a well known reaping and mowing machine, states that the prospect in that State is very bad, that the farmers feel poor, and in consequence but few machines may be expected to be sold there this season.—Chicago Trib.

Condition of the Markets at Home and Abroad.

DAILY REPORT OF PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, May 1, 1875.

The markets, in a general way, present but little that is really important; the most noticeable feature is in regard to Wheat and Flour, both of which have stiffened up very considerably within the past few days, under the influence of reports that the winter wheat crop has been badly damaged by the recent cold, freezing weather. The provisions and grocery markets are also firm, with an advancing tendency, while in general produce there is a fair degree of activity, and prices are pretty well sustained.

APPLES—The market is moderately active, with sales, in a jobbing way, at $2.50@3.50 ℔ bbl for fair to choice.

APPLE BUTTER—50@55c ℔ gal.

BEANS—We repeat former quotations, in a round lot way, $1.75@1.80 for mediums, and $1.85@1.90 for navies.

BUTTER—Under the influence of increased receipts, the market, even for the best grades, is a shade easier, although prices are still maintained; 28@30 for prime rolls and 32@33 for choice dairy. Old stock very dull.

CHEESE—We continue to quote at 16½@17c for prime Ohio Goshen, and 17@17½c for New York ditto.

CRANBERRIES—$10@12 ℔ bbl.

DRIED FRUIT—Quotable at 7@8c for Apples; 9@10 for halve Peaches; 6@7 for Elderberries, and 9@10 for Blackberries.

EGGS—The general tone of the market was rather firmer to-day if anything, but there was no improvement in prices; 14½@15.

FLOUR—The market continues to gain in strength and the demand is also improving, as it always does when prices are tending upward. Spring wheat flours, $6@6.10 for Wisconsins; and $6.25@6.35 for Minnesotas; winters, $6.25@6.50 for red, and $6.75@7.00 for amber and white. Rye Flour, $5.75@6.00.

GROCERIES—There is a fair degree of activity, although there is still room for improvement. Sugars and Molasses continue firm, and the same is true of Coffees. Stock in first hands in New York, April 29, 27,745 bags; at Baltimore, 12,889 bags; at Hampton Roads, 15,600 bags; at Galveston, 3,000 bags, Afloat and loading for New York, 59,700 bags; other ports in the United States, 68,800 bags; total 128,500 bags. Total stock and supplies for all ports of the United States, 187,834 bags. Messrs. Wright & Co.'s telegram, dated Rio de Janeiro, April 28, 1875, advises: Sales for United States since 21st inst., 15,000 bags; shipments to United States, Atlantic ports, 24,000 bags; loading, 63,000 bags; stock at date, 95,000 bags: average daily receipts, 9,000 bags; price, 8-800; exchange, 26¾d.

GRAIN—The market for Wheat continues very firm and somewhat excited in consequence of the reported damage done the winter wheat crop by the cold freezing weather, and with considerable inquiry and little or none offering, prices are firm and higher. PITTSBURGH LIVE STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, May 1 1875.

PITTSBURGH CENTRAL STOCK YARDS.

ARRIVALS.

Following were the arrivals of live stock at these yards for the week, and, to afford a comparison we append those of last week also:

	This week.	Last week.
Cattle	504 cars.	414 cars.
Hogs	128	225
Sheep	113	106

FREIGHTS.

No further change in rates, and so far as we know none is contemplated for the present at least, although dealers are apprehensive that the present low schedule will cause a conference of the railways, and that an early advance will be the result. The trade here are more concerned in uniformity of rates than they are in having them exceedingly low; the recent sharp reduction in the cost of transportation has caused no especial benefit to this market, as the effect has been to enhance the cost of stock at the source of supply, but as the rates from here to the seaboard have been reduced to correspond with those from Chicago through, trade here is no worse in consequence. The rates from here are now as follows:

To New York	20 c ℔ 100 lbs
To Philadelphia	17¾c ℔ 100 lbs
To Baltimore	17¾c ℔ 100 lbs

CATTLE.

The run has been the largest we have had during a single week for several months, 504 cars, but the largest proportion of these were through consignments; the actual supply on sale was not unusually large, as the increase consisted mainly of through stock, but it was in excess of the demand nevertheless, the best evidence of which is that several lots were shipped on in first hands. From Thursday noon up until noon to-day the receipts were 154 cars, all but three cars of which were billed through; and it is fortunate that such was the case, as there were no buyers during the time in question. Prices are off from ¼ to ½ a cent as compared with last week, the shrinkage being greatest on common and medium grades, of which the offerings mainly consisted.

The demand for Philadelphia was unusually light, four of the largest buyers were not here at all, having got all their cattle through from Chicago, and the inquiry for both Philadelphia and Baltimore was exceedingly light. There were in all, through stock and what was bought here, about 103 cars shipped to Philadelphia for Monday's market, and it was expected that there would be forty or fifty cars from Lancaster and other adjoining counties in the eastern part of the State, so that there will doubtless be a full supply. The New York market has been hard all week, prices being off from ½ to ¾ c., and this, with a heavy run for next week, makes a bad showing, and the indications are that our market will be no better next week than it was during the one which has just closed; indeed, the probability is that it will be even worse. Extra 1,400@1,500 steers quotable at 7@7¾; prime 1,200@1,300, 6¾@6¾; good 1,000@1,100, 5¾@6¾; fat cows and bulls, 4¾@5¾.

HOGS.

The receipts show a falling off of close on to one hundred cars, as compared with last week, but the supply has been fully up to the demand, and the market, except for prime heavy lard hogs, which were very scarce, was dull and drooping. There has been a heavy run of hogs from Chicago to New York during the past couple of weeks. Philadelphia has also been drawing pretty freely on that point, and the result has been a diminished demand here. Then it is well to bear in mind that since the sharp advance the consumption of fresh pork has been very much curtailed; and, furthermore, butchers nearly always commence to curtail their purchases at this season of the year. However, as already intimated, prime heavy hogs are scarce, not only here but elsewhere, and this being the case, prices for this particular kind are likely to be maintained as long as this continues. Prime heavy Philadelphia hogs, 275@300 lbs, 8@8¾; Baltimore hogs, 8¼@8¾; Yorkers, 7.60@7.90.

SHEEP.

There was, as will be seen by reference to the receipts, a heavy supply, and this, with very unfavorable reports from New York, caused a dull and draggy market all week. It is estimated that about two-thirds of the receipts were clipped and one-third wooled, but in consequence of the warm weather, there was more inquiry for the former than the latter, and not only did they meet with quicker sale, but relatively, as compared with last week, better prices. The decline may be stated at ¼ to ½ of a cent ℔ lb, the shrinkage being greatest on unshorn, notwithstanding the supply of this kind was comparatively light. Best 100 lb clipped 5¾@5¾; do. wooled, 7c; prime 90@95 lb. clipped, 4¾@5; 75@85, 4@4¾. Our New York report, of Friday, quoted best clipped at 5¾c.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, May 1, 1875.

CRUDE.

The market has stiffened up somewhat within the past 48 hours, and an advance has been established, with a continued upward tendency. On Thursday evening and Friday morning immediate shipment was quoted at $1.47½; this morning there was a sale at $1.52½, and later in the day it was held at $1.55@1.57½. It is rumored that the pipe lines will refuse hereafter to deliver oil in barges; we cannot vouch for the correctness of this report, but if it is correct, the inference is that it has been done in the interest of the A. V. R. R. Co.

REFINED.

Trade continues very dull, and, as compared with the early part of the week, prices are considerably lower; 10¼@10¾ delivered at Connellsville depot to go to Baltimore were the nominal quotations, equal to about 13c delivered there, and not much inquiry even at that.

Wool.

BOSTON, May 1.—There is no important change in the wool market. Sales of fleece have been made at previous rates, but there is a pressure to sell on the part of holders, and all are anxious to close up the stock as fast as possible, and to do so are willing to meet buyers on favorable terms. These remarks apply, however, only to fine fleeces and odds and ends usually to be found at the close of the year. Medium fleeces and combing and delaine selections are in active inquiry and very scarce. Pulled wools are also firm. Extra grades are particularly dull. The transactions in pulled wools have been the largest for some weeks, comprising upwards of 400,000 pounds, but the demand has been almost exclusively confined to fine and light supers to take the place of No. 1 fleece, now so difficult to find. Sales of Ohio and Pennsylvania fleeces, XXX, medium, and XX at 53@55¾c; X and XX Michigan 45¾@52¾c; western and other fleece heavy at 45@49c; combing and delaine fleeces 54@70c; unwashed combing 39@47¾c; scoured 49c@$1; super and X pulled 42@57¾c.

BOATS ADVERTISED TO LEAVE TO-DAY.

Mallie Ragon, Williamson, Wheeling, 1 P. M.
Kittie Hegler, Hegler, Cincinnati, 4 P. M.

THE stage of water last evening was six feet and falling. Weather boisterous and cooler.

AT Sioux City 300 tons are stored for Benton and way points.

OUR St. Louis exchanges speak very highly of the John L. Rhoads.

THE Carroll arrived at Yankton on last Friday week, and the Nellie Peck on the day preceding.

CAPTAIN PAUL retains five thousand in the Thompson Dean, and retires from active river service.

THE Iron Mountain, of Gray's Iron Line, is announced for St. Louis and intermediate points forthwith.

THE Fred Wilson No. 2 arrived from Louisville yesterday, and the Fearless and Geo. Lysle, with tows of ore, were due last night.

THE Mallie Ragon, Captain Williamson, with Mr. H. C. Caldwell in the office, is the regular Wheeling and Parkersburg packet to-day, leaving at 1 P. M.

THE Tom Jasper, en route from St. Louis with a cargo of iron ore, encountered a heavy wind storm above Jeffersonville, and both her chimneys were blown down.

THE Exchange left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Saturday, after receiving two hundred and thirty tons of gunboat iron from the Indiana. She has about four hundred tons altogether.

THE A. J. Baker, Captain Thomas Poe, is announced to take her departure for St. Louis to-morrow evening without fail, and shippers should make a note of this and be governed accordingly.

THE R. W. Skillinger, Capt. Russell, is the regular packet for Ironton and intermediate points to-morrow, leaving promptly at 4 P. M. The Skillinger will receipt through to Cincinnati and Louisville.

THE St. Louis Globe, of Saturday, says:—Captain H. H. Shoals, of the Ironsides, left Thursday afternoon for his home, Rochester, Pa., having received a dispatch notifying him of the dangerous illness of his father.

THE Wild Duck departed for St. Louis with an excellent trip, three barges well laden, and among other items she had considerable iron, nails and glassware. Leander C. Pattersen and E. H. Williamson are her pilots.

THE towboat Grand Lake has been sold to St. Louis parties. The Grand Lake Coal Company, of Louisville, will build a new boat to have 26 inch cylinders, ten feet stroke and seven steel boilers. The bid is open to all competitors for the hull and machinery.

THE Mollie Ebert from St. Louis, and the Kittie Hegler from Cincinnati, arrived on Friday night, both with excellent trips. The Ebert obtained a flat at Liverpool and lightened up, Capt. Batchelor being apprehensive, as he was at that time not aware of the rise here.

THE following persons died at the United States Marine Hospital, Louisville, during the month of April: Wm. C. Shillotto, rouster, steamer Robert E. Lee; Ben. Hensley, (colored) rouster, steamer Cherokee; Dan'l Redmond, (colored) rouster, steamer United States.

THE loaded coal barge, sunk recently at Barrett's Landing, Cincinnati, was got afloat on Friday night. There were twelve thousand bushels in the barge when sunk, and the same has been recovered. The other two barges grounded at the same time are sunk. They belong to N. J. Bigley.

THAT staunch and commodious steamer, Mollie Ebert, Captain F. Y. Batchelor, after having made a very successful trip to St. Louis, has resumed her place in the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati trade, and as will be seen by card, is announced to take her departure on Wednesday. Capt. Jas. W. Batchelor retains charge of the office.

CAPT. JAS. PAUL has sold his three-eighths interest in the Thompson Dean, to the other owners of the boat, and to Captain W. B. Miller, for 80 per cent. of the amount which he paid, the other purchasers assuming insurance and other liabilities. Captain Miller arrived at Cincinnati on Thursday evening, and took command.

MR. STERLING MCINTYRE, chief clerk of the Kittie Hegler, is an old Alleghenian, and his father, Captain William McIntyre, who commanded the Saranak in 1848 and 1850, will be remembered by many of our old boatmen. He removed with his father to Cincinnati some 20 years ago, which he has made his home ever since.

THE body of Alexander McQuiggen, an old steamboat pilot, was found in the Ohio river on Saturday near Dixmont. Deceased had been missing for a couple of weeks, and it is supposed that he committed suicide, as he was low-spirited for some time previous. He leaves a wife and family in Allegheny, and was about 64 years of age.

A ST. LOUIS dispatch, under date of April 30th, says:—Com. J. M. Dunlap left for Pittsburgh to-night, where he will begin loading the Iron Mountain and barges for St. Louis on Monday. The Ironsides will arrive from Cairo to-morrow with three barges of coke, and adding two barges here, will proceed with her tow to Dubuque.

THE object of the Red River Transportation Company at New Orleans is to establish a line of boats to run to all points on Red River, and the capital stock to be $10,000, represented by 200 shares at $50 each. The present officers of the company are: Capt. J. A. Aiken, president, with Captains M. N. Wood, H. J. Brinker, Isaac H. Kouns and Fred W. Ames as directors.

A DISPATCH from St. Louis, Saturday, says: The John L. Rhoads has 280 bbls of clay, 250 bbls of flour, 25 bales of hemp, 1,200 sacks of shipstuff, and 20 tons of miscellaneous freight, all for Pittsburgh. She takes no iron....Captain Darragh sold the hull of the Paragon yesterday to Captain Wm. Thomas, of the Sectional Docks, who will rebuild it, and offer it for sale.

SUNDAY'S Cincinnati Commercial says: The loaded coal barge belonging to N. J. Bigley, and which was sunk recently at Barrett's Landing, was raised a few days since, and its entire contents of 12,000 bushels of coal recovered; two other barges filled with coal which grounded at the same time were sunk on Friday by the rapidly rising river....Wes. Davis and W. H. Hall pilot the Tom Jasper to Pittsburgh.

J. ALEX. FRAZIER, who was one of the pilots of the John L. Rhoads from Cincinnati to St. Louis, writes under date of St. Louis, April 29th: The new steamer John L. Rhoads arrived here this morning with 600 tons of freight, and came here from Cairo in forty-two hours against a heavy rise, which I consider very good time. We will leave here on Saturday for Pittsburgh with a fair trip. The river here is high and rising fast. The Rhoads handles and steers well.

SOME time ago we printed extracts from the pleading in a case wherein the mother of young Connor, freight clerk on the Thompson Dean, had brought suit in a Louisville court to recover damages for the death of her son. Capt. Paul, defendant, demurred to plaintiff's pleading on the ground that a suit could not be brought in a Kentucky court for damages where the allegations of the pleading occurred in the State of Indiana, and on other grounds. The case is not yet decided.

THE Cincinnati Gazette says: An impression has gone abroad that the steamers of the Cincinnati, Portsmouth, Big Sandy and Pomeroy Packet Company, on certain days of the week, at least, take Wheeling and Pittsburgh freight, and at cheap rates. We are authorized to say that the above company has not taken Wheeling and Pittsburgh freight, except in one instance, when there was no Pittsburgh boat at the wharf; that such freight is not desired by the company, and that the company does not solicit it.

THE Kittie Hegler, Captain J. D. Hegler, is announced to take her departure for Cincinnati this evening without fail. The Hegler is in all respects an A 1 boat, and as will be seen by card, offers superior inducements to both passengers and shippers. We can commend the Hegler to the public as being first-class in all respects, and as this is her first visit here, we are in hopes that she will obtain a good trip out, notwithstanding she was unable to get a single agent, as they had all been engaged prior to her arrival.

FOLLOWING boats were in port yesterday: Mollie Ebert, Mallie Ragon, Kittie Hegler, Salt Valley, Juniata, and towboats Resolute, Sam Clarke, Lion, N. J. Bigley, Sam Miller, Boaz, Eagle, Hercules, J. S. McDonald, Coal City, J. H. Bigley, Baltic, Fulton No. 2, Tigress No. 2, Joseph Walton, Bengal Tiger, Tom Rees, Hornet No. 2, Rover, Iron Mountain, Maggie Smith, Parke Painter, L. C. McCormick, Venture, Charley McDonald, John Hanna, Jos. A. Stone, Dexter, Sam Parker, Mary Ann, My Choice, Tom Dodsworth, Lioness No. 2, Diamond, Whale, John F. Dravo, Stella and Ark.

A TELEGRAM of May 1st from Memphis says: The towboat John Dippold, with a coal fleet containing 225,000 bushels, grounded and broke up her tow, nine miles above here, before daylight yesterday, losing three boats and four barges, valued at $26,000. Two of the boats belonged to N. J. Bigley, one to W. H. Brown, and three barges to Dippold and one to McGowan. No insurance. The remainder of the fleet are expected here this evening....The Smoky City passed down this afternoon, leaving two barges of coal here....The Arlington left for the Ohio at 5 this evening, with 30 people, 88 bales of cotton, for Goodhart & Co.; 18 do. for Pittsburgh.

SATURDAY'S St. Louis Democrat says:—The new and altogether superior steamer Jno. L. Rhoads, Captain Vandegrift, Mr. Fisher clerk, will leave positively to-day for Cincinnati and Pittsburgh. She is the best boat ever built for the trade....The Warner, with a tow of ore barges, was to sail at 4 P. M. from the ore pile for the Ohio....The Fannie Tatum left the ore pile for the Ohio with two loaded barges. She will be expected here about May 20, from Pittsburgh, with a heavy load, or, in other words, with a paying trip....In addition to several hundred tons of freight shipped by rail from this city to Benton, this season, the following steamers have left with cargoes. The amount is not large, but shows a considerable improvement over the last three or four years: Nellie Peck, Andy Johnson, master; cargo, 350 tons; departed April 3. Carroll, Tim. Burleigh, master; cargo, 300 tons; departed April 3. Chas. W. Mead, Jas. Clark, master; cargo, 280 tons; departed April 7. Benton, J. McGarry, master; cargo 350 tons; departed April 11. Katie P. Kountz, D. Haney, master; cargo, 260 tons; departed April 14. J. M. Chambers, Jo. La Barge, master; cargo, 380 tons; departed April 20. A small quantity of this freight was shipped at Pittsburgh, and some of it consigned to points on the Missouri below Benton and Sioux City.

HOME NEWS.

Shoe Store Robbed.

Some time during Saturday night thieves broke a window at the side of John Hammer's shoe store on Duquesne way, above Sixth street, and entered the store and carried off some boots and shoes. There is no clue to the thieves. This is the fourth time this place has been robbed during the past four months.

Sudden Death.

Yesterday morning a young man named John Barker, nineteen years of age, who resided on Anderson street, Allegheny, while sitting at his home, suddenly fell to the floor and expired. A physician was summoned but he pronounced life extinct. Death was caused by neuralgia of the heart. Deceased was a son of Mr Barker, of the firm of Barker & Burton.

Reckless.

About ten o'clock yesterday morning a young man named Gossett recklessly attempted to get on a train of cars on the P. F. W. & C. Railroad, some distance below Woods' Run, which was going at a rapid rate. He failed to get his feet on the platform, and was thrown about twelve or fifteen feet from the track, and was very badly bruised about the head and shoulders.

Found in the River.

Saturday morning a body was observed floating in the Ohio river, opposite Dixmont. Some parties on shore procured a skiff, and brought the body in to shore, when it was found to be that of Alexander Whiggin, a pilot, who has been missing from his home in Allegheny for a couple of weeks past. The deceased had been without employment for some time, and had become low-spirited and discouraged. He was about fifty-six years of age, and leaves a wife and two children.

A Suspicious Character.

About two o'clock yesterday morning officer Jerry Smith, of Allegheny, saw a man sneaking around the Market House, and as the man had been ordered away before, he arrested him and removed him to the lock-up where he gave his name as Wm Crawford. He gave a very poor account of himself and from his actions he is believed to be one of the prisoners who escaped from the Work House on last Wednesday. He will probably be taken to the Work House to-day to ascertain whether the officers suspicions are correct or not.

Notice to Applicants for Certificates.

The Committee on Permanent Certificates for Allegheny county met for organization, etc., at the Curry Institute, on Saturday, May 1. On motion, it was decided to hold three meetings during the year—one on the first Saturday of June, one on the last Saturday of October, and one on the last Saturday of February. Applicants will be required to prepare a thesis on some educational subject which will be assigned by the Committee, and they will be examined as to their method of teaching the common branches.

BY ORDER OF THE COMMITTEE.

The Water Question on the South Side.

A meeting of the Thirty-second ward property holders was held recently to discuss the water question, which resulted in the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this meeting that the City Councils accept the proposition now before them for the Monongahela Water Company to suppy the hill wards with water, and that immediate action be taken thereon.

Resolved, That unless such action be taken promptly in this matter, the citizens of the hill wards will be justified in resisting the payment of both water and fire tax, now being assessed, for which we have no benefit.

Meeting of the County Prison Board on Saturday Morning.

On Saturday morning a meeting of the County Prison Board was held, Judge Ewing in the chair.

Bills to the amount of $222.68 were read and approved.

The resignation of Mr. George Albree as a member of the Work House Board of Managers was accepted.

A resolution returning the thanks of the Prison Board to George R. White, who resigned from the Work House Board of Managers at the last meeting, for his faithful and valuable services for many years past, was adopted.

Narrow Escape.

Mr. Wm. Semple, the Allegheny dry-goods merchant, met with an accident on Saturday about noon, which might have been attended with very serious consequences. A few minutes before twelve o'clock he started for his home in his buggy. He was driving along Ohio street at a pretty brisk pace and just as he came opposite the Penitentiary one of the bolts by which the tongue is attached to the vehicle came out, allowing the bow of the tongue on that side to drop about the heels of one of the horses. This, of course, frightened them, and the driver jumping out, at Mr. Semple's request, to see what was the matter, frightened them still further, and they dashed toward the stable at the rear of Mr. Semple's residence, on Irwin avenue, at a rapid pace. As he came to the corner of that street Mr. Semple seeing he could not control them, endeavored to get the vehicle upon the street railway track which was clear, thinking they would run a little distance and could be checked. The fugitive team, however, were bent on reaching the stable and tried to make the turn at the alley behind Irwin avenue, in doing which one of the horses dashed his head through the window of Rhodes' confectionary doing several dollars worth of damage. Mr. Semple was thrown forward out upon the pavement, alighting on his hip, which was badly bruised. He was supported to his house and received medical attendance. The bruises sustained are quite painful.

It was a most fortunate escape from serious accident, and we congratulate the gentleman that the result was no worse.

A Pleasant Anniversary.

Yesterday afternoon the friends and members of the North avenue M. E. Sunday school, Allegheny, assembled in their beautiful school room to participate in the exercises incident to the Ninth Anniversary, commemorative of the organization of the school. The attendance was so large that the capacity of the lecture room was fully taxed, and the exercises proved quite interesting. The programme embraced a report from the officers, which set forth in brief that the school during the year had prospered finely. There had been an increase of over one hundred in the daily average attendance above the former year, and the roll contained the names of over six hundred scholars and teachers. Financially the school had been paying all current expenses, contributing about $600 for additions to the library, and paying nearly $400 on an old debt. In respect to spiritual growth, there had been over sixty members gathered into the church from the school,—or more than one for every session. Fitting mention was also made in the report of the great loss sustained by the society in the death of one of its most honored and beloved teachers, Mr. Henry Pratt, and also to the deaths of Josephine Thompson, Eva Cooley, Lulu Welchans, Thomas Cooley, Albert Welchans, and Kate Owens, scholars, who had "all died in the faith."

After the report came addresses by the Rev. Dr. B. F. Brooke, of Christ M. E. church, Rev. Dr. I. C. Pershing, of the Pittsburgh Female College, Joseph Horne, Esq., and the pastor, Rev. E. B. Snyder. The addresses were brief, earnest and effective.

These exercises were interspersed with music from the school and choir—the latter, under the lead of Prof. Bargess, favoring the audience with "Hold the Fort," and several beautiful anthems.

Altogether the programme was a bright and spirited one, and the anniversary was enjoyed by teachers, scholars and visitors.

AN INSANE PITTSBURGHER.

A Strange Story from Holly Springs.

Last night a telegraphic dispatch was received by Associated Press from Holly Springs, Mississippi, which set forth that "a passenger on the northern bound train, supposed from his baggage to be W. C. Duncan, of Pittsburgh, was found to be totally insane, and the conductor placed him in charge of a man there, who allowed him to escape, and he is now at large in the woods. He was well dressed, and had a large sum of money in his possession."

RIOT AT LAWRENCEVILLE.

An Officer Injured and a Man Shot Through the Hand.

Yesterday afternoon, it appears that a crowd of about eight or nine young bloods got into a difficulty on the river bank at Lawrenceville, when Lieutenant Berger attempted to effect the arrest of the disorderly parties. Not being able to accomplish his purpose alone, a street lamp washer named Rod Jeffries was called into service and while the twain were making an effort to capture some of the party, one of them fired a shot, which took effect in Jeffries hand, inflicting a painful wound. The Lieutenant was also somewhat injured, being rather roughly handled. The rioters made their escape without being taken into custody.

At a late hour last night two of the rioters were arrested and locked up in the Seventeenth ward station house.

GAS EXPLOSION.

A House Narrowly Escapes Destruction.

On Saturday afternoon a paper-hanger, while hanging paper in the parlor of the residence of Mr. Archibald Marshall, on Ridge avenue, opposite Irwin avenue, Allegheny, removed a gas bracket, and afterwards screwed it on again, but in such a way that it allowed the gas to escape in the room. Shortly after seven o'clock in the evening, the gas, which filled the room and the hallway, ignited from a burner in the second story and exploded with a loud report, and blew all of the plastering off the parlor walls and ceiling, and also off the wall in the hallway, and also blew the landing at the head of the stairs down, so that Mr. Marshall and another gentleman who were on it fell to the floor, but fortunately they were not hurt. It broke all of the windows in the parlor, and also set fire to the lathes in the parlor wall. The fire was extinguished before any further damage was done.

COMMITTEE MEETINGS.

New Surveys.

The Survey Committee held a meeting in the City Clerk's office Saturday afternoon, eight members being in attendance and Chairman Aull presiding.

A petition was presented for the re-location of Alder street, which was referred to a special committee consisting of Messrs. Breed, Morrison and Nesbit.

The remonstrance against the location of Hoffman street, Thirty-second ward, was called up and action postponed.

Action was also postponed on the ordinance locating Spruce street.

The ordinance locating the center line of Meyran street, Fourth ward, was affirmatively recommended.

The petition for the change of location of Edgerton avenue was called up and action postponed.

The ordinance vacating a portion of Lake street was affirmatively recommended, as was also the ordinance establishing the grade of said street.

The engineer reported on an ordinance establishing the grade of Center street, Twenty-first ward, that the grade of the street had been established on Winslow street. The report was accepted.

Mr. Breed, from the sub-committee on the grade of Brady street, from Forbes street to Fifth avenue, reported in favor of a uniform grade between the points named and to adhere to the fill on Forbes street, doing so in the full view of the fact that it will involve a rise of about fifteen feet per hundred. The report was accepted and an ordinance ordered to be reported in accordance with the recommendation.

Mr. Shaltenbrand moved the appointment of a committee on the location of streets in the Sixteenth ward, between Woolslayer's and Edeburn's places. The motion prevailed, and Messrs. Shaltenbrand, Seibert and Chislett appointed as the committee.

The pay roll for the month, amounting to $744.14, was presented and approved.

A committee consisting of Messrs. Shaltenbrand, Breed and Seibert was appointed to devise some means to reimburse the survey corps for money paid for transportation.

The committee then adjourned to meet next Thursday at 2:30 P. M.

THE MARKETS.

The Market Committee of Councils held a regular meeting Saturday night in the City Clerk's office, five members being present. In the absence of the chairman, Mr. Kerr presided.

A number of bills were presented and ordered to be paid.

Councilman Braun asked permission, on behalf of the Duquesne Greys, to rent old City Hall for fairs, etc., in order to enable the Greys to raise a fund to equip members of the regiment who were not able to provide themselves, to attend the Centennial at Philadelphia. There was some talk upon the matter among the members, but no action was taken.

Superintendent Caskey presented his report of the receipts and expenditures during the month of April, as follows:

RECEIPTS.

Diamond market	$3,743 29
Fifth avenue market	190 66
South Side market	163 10
Ninth ward market	2 50
Total	$4,099 55

EXPENDITURES.

Diamond market	$552 13
Fifth avenue market	88 95
South Side market	115 83
Ninth ward market	25 00
Total	$781 91

A communication was presented from the Secretary of the Tradesman's Industrial Institute, asking if the Fifth avenue market house and the adjacent lot could be made available for the exposition to be gotten up by the Institute. The communication says: "Our preference is to lease, and while our determination may not involve the acceptance of this location, we desire to know if it can be had and on what terms, so that we will have the data on which to found a conclusion."

On motion, a sub-committee consisting of Messrs. Flinn, Kernan, Rowswell, Bindley was appointed to confer with the Indusrtial Institute upon the matter.

The meeting then adjourned.

THE POLICE DEPARTMENT.

The regular monthly meeting of the Police Committee was held Saturday night in the Common Council chamber. Fourteen members of the committee were in attendance, with Chairman Thompson presiding.

The monthly report of the business of the Mayor's office was presented and filed.

A communication was presented from Mayor McCarthy, setting forth that the following policemen had resigned: C. J. Larimer, Thomas Boyden, Thomas Shannon, Samuel Hibbs, F. J. Machelcowsky. The following have been dropped from the roll: John Mack, Michael McKenna, Thomas Maxwell, W. A. Otterson, M. McDonnell, John Woods, John L. Hager, Alonzo Early.

Mayor McCarthy made the following nominations for appointments on the police force: James Goudy, J. H. Costello, Pat Farrell, D. Herron, H. Cochran, James Woods, N. S. Snyder, A. B. McVay, John Hughes, John J. Davis, P. P. Connolly, Joseph Greiner, Andrew Jarrett, Thomas Hestor, Chas. A. Bauer, James Allen, M. Broebach, Wm. H. Proctor, Henry Krusa, A. S. Thatcher, Harry C. Isett, John Steinbaugh, Hugh Gibbons, Thos. Alker, James Corey and James Morrison.

The applicants were brought personally before the committee, and after an examination the appointments were all confirmed. Samuel Martin, who was nominated for appointment at the last meeting, appeared and was confirmed.

The Mayor desired to call attention to the fact that everything was in readiness now for the extending of the telegraph to the Thirty-sixth ward station house, and it only awaited the orders of the committee to do the work. He also desired to call attention to the fact that the telegraph repairer had received but $75 for all of last year's work. He had done a great deal of work and the Mayor thought that the work he had done was worth $250 if it was worth anything.

A committee, consisting of Messrs. Braun, Meyer and Connolly, was appointed to make the extension of the police alarm to the Thirty-second ward.

A number of bills were presented and ordered to be paid.

The special committee on the Black Maria horses reported recommending their sale, and the awarding of a contract to supply their places, instead of purchasing. On motion, the committee was empowered to make such a contract.

Mr. Braun moved that a standing committee of five be appointed to examine monthly pay-rolls of the police hereafter before the meetings of the committee, in order to facilitate matters. The motion was adopted, and Messrs. Braun, B. Darlington, Foley, Rowswell and Wainwright were appointed.

Mr. Foley here called up the matter of paying the police who did duty at the Pittsburgh Bolt Works after the arrival of the colored puddlers, and asked a statement from the Mayor as to the facts in the case.

The Mayor stated that a letter was sent by the President of the Bolt Company asking for police protection, and promising to pay for the services rendered. Afterward, however, when the company was asked to pay the men the members of the company declined to stand up to the written offer and pledge of the President of the company. The men, at the request of the company, were kept a much longer time on duty.

Mr. Foley asked if anything had been done toward having these men paid.

The chairman said that the City Solicitor was now in conference with the Bolt Works Company relative to adjusting the matter.

Mr. O'Neill moved that a warrant be drawn to pay these men, and then let the city fight it out with the Bolt Works afterward. The men were badly in need of their money.

Mr. Braun said he thought the fault in this matter lay with the Chief of Police. The Chief had no authority of law to appoint a special force and the Chief ought to fight it out with the Bolt Company in reference to this pay, instead of the city.

The chairman stated in regard to Mr. O'Neill's, motion that the City Solicitor had informed him that the Bolt Company would abide by his decision, if he said they were legally liable they would pay the bill. The Solicitor will decide that they are liable, so the bill will doubtless be paid. The chairman, therefore, thought it would not be wise to order warrants now, as the money would come out of the police appropriation, and could not be replaced there when the bolt works did pay, as the money would then have to go into the general fund.

Several members coincided with the chairman, and by common consent the matter was postponed until next meeting, expecting that in the meantime the City Solicitor and the Bolt Company would come to an agreement.

The police roll for April, amounting to $15,206.74, was then presented and approved, after which the committee adjourned.

A SAD DEATH.

A Verdict of Death from Drunkenness and Exposure.

On Saturday, Bridget Keough, who resides in Baldwin township, her husband and a son, came to this city on business. After having bought a lot of goods, the husband started for home, leaving his wife and son to follow, which they did in the evening, at which time they took a street car and rode as far as Brownstown. Here they started to walk home, but being so much intoxicated, they only traveled about a mile and a half until they reached Beck's Run, in Lower St. Clair township, where it appears, they were overcome with the intoxicant, of which they had drank freely, and concluded to lie down on the cold ground. At about three o'clock yesterday morning the son wakened up and went home, and on being interrogated as to the whereabouts of his mother, he could not account for her. On going to the spot where they had camped out, the old lady was found dead, lying with her face downward and buried in the mud. The Coroner held an inquest which resulted in a verdict of "death from drunkenness and exposure." Deceased was fifty-four years of age, was of Irish decent, and leaves a husband and seven children.

POLITICAL.

The Action of the Executive Committee—The Dissatisfaction Increasing—Protests from Allegheny Republicans—One of the Delegates Declines—Another Meeting Likely to be Called.

The dissatisfaction in reference to the late action of the County Executive Committee is on the increase, and it seems the more that action is discussed the greater is the hostility to it developed. From all quarters, vigorous protests are coming in against the course of the Committee, and the opinion is pretty general in political circles, that if the party is to be gotten into harmonious working order, the action of the committee will have to be rescinded. The matter has been thoroughly canvassed since last Tuesday among politicians from the cities and from the rural districts, and the great preponderance of sentiment is that the committee not only stepped somewhat out of its strict line of duty, but that it also appointed a ticket which with but a few exceptions is one that is utterly obnoxious to every Republican who desires to see his party represented by men who are worthy of such honor. While the masses of the party object to the Committee taking upon itself the right to select delegates to the State Convention, yet it is apparent that that might have been overlooked had the appointments been made of men who were worthy representatives of the people.

The dissatisfaction among the best class of Republicans in the city was exemplified by the action of the meeting in the Thirteenth ward on Friday evening. The resolutions passed at that gathering, though strong, but fairly represented the feeling of the voters of other sections who are as deeply aroused.

On the South Side the mutterings of discontent are heard from the rank and file, and the feeling is likely to take definite expression in a day or two.

Alleghenians from the very onstart were decidedly hostile to the action of the Committee, and by voice and vote protested against the step before it was taken. They have not become mollified since the meeting, but seem to be even more bitter in their opposition to the appointment of the delegates by the Committee. Their protest has assumed the form of a circular, which is going the rounds and has received the signatures of a number of the active workers. The circular is as follows:

John A. Myler, President Young Men's Republican Club:

SIR:—You are requested to call a special meeting of the Young Men's Republican club at the earliest possible moment, for the purpose of taking action in reference to the proceedings of the County Republican Committee at its recent session in kindly nominating our delegates for us to the State convention.

ALLEGHENY, May 1, 1875.

As an indication of the sentiment of Allegheny Republicans there can be no mistake in regard to that outspoken expression of opinion.

The outside districts are not a whit behind Allegheny and the Republicans of Pittsburgh in their expressions of dissatisfaction. It will be remembered that the members from the rural districts opposed allowing the Committee to select the delegates, and were very bitter in their protests, but they were not present in numbers sufficient to defeat the proposition. They are not satisfied, however, to "let things be" as they are, but they are talking in a way that indicates a kicking out of the traces. One of these gentlemen, Mr. B. B. Coursin, of McKeesport, who was selected as a delegate, has not been mollified by this piece of strategy, but declines to be caught in that style. Editorially speaking of the matter, in Saturday's issue of the Times, he says: The attendance of the city members was very large, while the number of members from the rural districts was exceedingly small. As a consequence, the city manipulators had comparatively an easy task in carrying out their previously arranged slate, not only in arranging for early conventions, but also in designating who should represent the people of the county at the convention appointed by the State Committee to meet at Lancaster on the 26th inst. The manner in which the programme was carried out would have disgraced the most boisterous gathering the "Unterrified" ever held in the county. The actions of the chief wire-pullers developed the fact that the interest of a few of the pet candidates was of more importance to them than that of the party, and of course resulted in the deciding to hold early conventions. Contrary to all previous usages or customs, the Committee voted to take upon themselves the responsibility to elect representatives to the State Convention. This assumption might have been more pardonable had the intention to do so been made known at the time the Committee was appointed, last fall; but sprung at the eleventh hour, without previous notice, as it was, it is well calculated to give serious dissatisfaction, which may bring disaster and ruin upon the party.

"As a member of the committee we both opposed and voted against the measure, and without our knowledge or consent our name appeared among those voted through to represent the different districts of this county at the convention to be held in Lancaster this month. While we would certainly esteem it an honor to represent the Republicans of this district at the Convention spoken of, had we been duly elected by the people having a full right to vote in the premises, we under existing circumstances, feel it our duty to positively decline to accept the position of a representative elected by no other authority than that which convened at the Lincoln Club rooms last Tuesday; and actuated by this feeling we have sent in our declination to the Chairman of the County Committee, as we believe that not only the interest of the party, but justice demands this course. The committee are at liberty to take such action as they see fit in the premises, but we hope the members will be prompted by a desire to secure the success of the ticket to be nominated at the Convention at Lancaster and the general welfare of the Republican party."

So it goes all along the line. The action of the committee is repudiated by the rank and file of the party, and by those leaders, who believe that the surest way for the party to succeed in the coming campaign, is to select as standard bearers representative men who would command the respect of the community.

Rarely has there been as much feeling aroused in Republican circles in opposition to a measure. The general demand is that the work of the committee be undone, and if some attention is not paid to this demand there will be trouble in the camp that will be felt where it will do the most harm—at the polls.

THE SUPERINTENDENCIES.

Pittsburgh Schools.

A meeting of the School Directors of Pittsburgh will be held to-morrow morning in the hall of the Fourth ward school house to elect a City Superintendent for the ensuing three years. Superintendent George J. Luckey, has no opposition. He has given such satisfaction to teachers and Directors, that his unanimous re-election is but a compliment to his efficiency, which is fully merited.

Allegheny Schools.

To-morrow evening a regular meeting of the Board of School Controllers of Allegheny will be held in the Common Council Chamber City Hall, at seven and a half o'clock. The chief item of business, will be, that connected with the selection of a city Superintendent. It is said that the old movement to abolish the office of superintendent will be revived, but the indications seem to be that it will not meet with great favor,—as the whole question had been thoroughly debated before the Superintendency was first adopted, it is thought by the friends of the system that it needs no further argument.

The candidates, who are named for the office are the present incumbent Prof. John Davis, who seems to have given general satisfaction, and proven his fitness for the position, Prof. J. M. Conroy the active and competent Principal of the Fifth ward Schools, and Prof. T. Jeff Duncan, the popular Principal of the Seventeenth ward Schools.

The County Superintendency.

The canvass for County Superintendency will close to-morrow, and the question will be decided at a meeting of the Directors of the county outside of the cities at ten o'clock in the morning, at the school house in the Third ward, this city. There are five contestants in the field. The names of the candidates are: A. T. Douthett, the present incumbent; Samuel Adams, now Principal of Thad Stevens' school, this city; Prof. Dickson, of Sewickley; Prof. James M. Pryor, formerly Principal of the Third ward and lately of the Second ward schools, this city, and Prof. John Snodgrass.

NEW FIRM.

Where to Get China, Glass and Queensware.

In another column announcement is made of a change of firm—Messrs. Reppert & Williams succeeding the old firms of Mr. H. C. Reineman and Messrs. Sands & Reineman, in the Library Building, No. 201 Penn avenue. The old house has a reputation that has made it a great headquarters for all who desired to get really first-class goods in the special lines of House-furnishing articles, china, glass, or queensware. The new firm thus commences with the prestige of the old firms, and they are in every way fitted to keep up the reputation of the house. The members of the new firm Messrs. Reppert & Williams, are gentlemen who are practically acquainted with the details of their business, and understand it thoroughly in every branch. They propose to keep constantly on hand a full line of house-furnishing goods, glass, china and Queensware, and hope by offering patrons the benefit of the best of goods and low prices, to merit a largely increased patronage. They are gentlemen who make no boast, but have the reputation of being able to do what they say,—and we know all our friends who favor them with a call will become convinced, as we were by a visit to the house, that they will be able to fill any order from a cup to the costliest china sett. They have now a fresh and beautiful stock laid in for the spring trade, which our friends who are replenishing would do well to look at.

AMUSEMENTS.

Pittsburgh Opera House.

The Frank Frayne combination will commence a short engagement at the Opera House this evening, in a play written expressly for them entitled "Si Slocum. Of the play and performers the Cleveland Leader says:—"Si Slocum" is creating an excitement this week, which the ordinary hackneyed "sensation" drama would utterly fail to arouse. The thrilling scenes of this drama are rendered almost fearfully realistic by the decidedly sharp shooting of the members of the Frayne Combination, whose nerve, skill and daring excite the most unbounded enthusiasm. The novelty of the introduction of a horse and a dog upon the stage is made a surprising success by the intelligence displayed by the well trained animals. The vein of humor which runs through the drama is a relief at times from the nervous tension to which the spectators are worked up by the startling incidents in which the play abounds. That the appearance of the Frayne Combination this evening will be greeted by another crowded house is as sure as is the shot of "Si Slocum."

Library Hall.

On Monday evening next, May 10th, the amusement loving portion of our community will have an opportunity of witnessing what is rarely seen in Pittsburgh—the appearance of three stars on the same evening in one piece—Edwin Adams, E. A. Locke and Lotta—the occasion being the benefit of the popular manager, Henry E. Abbey, Esq. Two popular plays will be produced—"Wild Oats," with Adams in his great role of Rover, Lotta as Jane and Locke as Sim, and "Nan, the Good for Nothing," with Lotta as Nan, Locke as Tom, and Edwin Adams as Harry. It will certainly be a grand entertainment, and the house will undoubtedly be thronged. Therefore reserved seats should be secured early. The sale of seats will commence Thursday morning, at Hale's music store.

Trimble's Varieties Theatre.

Manager Aims has secured additional attractions for his cozy place of amusement in the person of the celebrated Minnie Rainforth, with her military specialties and serio-comic vocalisms—making her first appearance here this evening. The famous Praeger Family, Snow Brothers, Zanfretta Pantomime Troupe, &c., have also been retained for the present week—the whole forming an unusually attractive entertainment.

Prof. O. S. Fowler.

Prof. Fowler, the distinguished phrenologist, will deliver two free lectures in Lafayette Hall, the first on Monday and the second on Wednesday evening of next week. His subject will be "Life and Self-culture, which will be handled in a pleasing style, and will amply repay those attending. The professor's reputation, as a phrenologist, is too well established to need any comment at our hands.

The "Centennial" Museum.

The ladies who had charge of the Centennial tea parties have at last yielded to many requests, and will re-open the art gallery and museum this week. Many new relics have been secured and arrangements have been made also for ice cream, tables for the sale of cups and other attractions. The museum, we predict, will be a popular resort.

Musical and Dramatic.

WHEN Soldene has her teeth filled, says John Henry, the dentist put his step-ladder inside.

MISS KELLOGG, and the English Opera troupe will sing on Monday and Tuesday in Rochester.

WHO was the actress who said of Ben De Bar: "He penures better than any manager of the time."

MR. V. E. BEAMER has been compelled to relinquish the managerial business for the present, on account of ill health. His many friends hope for his speedy restoration, which will be accelerated by relaxation from business cares for a time.

What the Nervous Require.

What the nervous require more than anything else is invigoration. Sedatives alone will not cure nervousness. The reason that the nerves are so susceptible is that they are weak. Compensate for this deficiency of strength, and over acute nervous sensibility disappears. The most rational, wholesome, and agreeable tonic is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Medical men recommend its use for the cure of general debility, knowing it to possess strength-giving properties of the highest order, and at the same time to be a means of reforming those bodily irregularities which induce nervousness and loss of vigor. It is the best known for dyspepsia, whether nervous or bilious, and is powerfully conservative of a regular habit of body. As it is notorious that those who are afflicted with weak nerves, biliousness or constipation, are peculiarly liable to the influence of malaria, it is invaluable to such persons on account of its preventive efficacy. It endows the body with health, and the mind with cheerfulness.
